

BEYOND SKIN IN ASSOCIATION WITH PREMIER INN BELFAST

Present

A SERIES OF EVENTS FOR CULTURE NIGHT BELFAST 2009

4pm - 5pm

THE MOTION PROJECT (bar/lounge)

World music comes to the Premier Inn with musicians from Northern Ireland's largest multicultural music collective, The Motion Project. They created the 'interactive music experience (iME)' format where YOU become the band! High energy, a lot of fun and you will learn about different cultures in the experience.

5.00pm – 5.20pm (bar/lounge)

ASHIAH CACKOWSKA & ANYAH WYSOCZYNSKA

(and guests)

Soulful sounds and vocal harmonies from the beautiful voices of two of Poland's greatest music secrets

5.30pm – 6.00pm (bar/lounge)

JONNY NIXON

Local singer-songwriter Jonny Nixon is one of the those hidden talented artists that is now making waves in Northern Ireland due to his passionate song writing skills and voice.

6.00pm – 6.20pm (bar/lounge)

SCREAM BLUE MURMUR

Poetry taken to a new level. They have toured the world with their words, beats, music and chants since coming together in 2006 in Northern Ireland for a tour of Australia. Experience the dynamic way this group delivers the art of spoken word.

6.30pm – 7.30pm (bar/lounge)

WILSON MAGWERE & THE TALKING DRUM

ALBUM LAUNCH!!

The band is collaboration between a Zimbabwean musician Wilson Magwere along with local Irish talents Aidan Milligan, Maurice Macartney, Keith Watterson, Michael Speers, Ghanaian djembe drummer Thomas Annang and Polish guitarist Daniel Perskawiec. A guaranteed performance you will not forget! Join the guys as they launch their new CD.

4.00pm – 10.00pm (foyer)

HOMELY PLANET RADIO

“we are receiving you Brant Rock”

‘Homely Planet’ Northern Ireland’s inter(net) cultural radio will have a temporary studio in the foyer of the Premier Inn. Come and chat to us and to the rest of the world. WATD Radio, Massachusetts will be also joining us on a shared broadcast.

7.30pm - 8pm / 8.30pm – 10.00pm (function room)

1 GIANT LEAP

“what about me?”

Following the success of their first double Grammy-nominated film & album, ‘What About Me?’ is the latest film project from 1 Giant Leap. Touring over 50 worldwide locations where, through music, they explore the complexities of human nature. Featuring Michael Stipe, Alanis Morissette, Carlos Santana, Eddi Reader, Billy Connolly, Stephen Fry, Bob Geldof, KD Lang.

8.00pm - 8.20pm (function room)

LIVING IN THE HALF LIGHT

“a film by Zhenia Mahdi-Nau”

A thought provoking and emotive film about the complex indentify issues facing children & young people from diverse backgrounds living in Northern Ireland. First public screening of the film introduced by Zhenia Mandi-Nau

